

IFW Chair/ Board Member

Pro-bono; Part-time

Due to Director rotation, the Institute is looking for a new Chair from January 2024.

Role Purpose

- To perform an ambassadorial role representing the IFW
- To perform a thought leadership role either directly or by promoting the IFW's approach to financial well-being
- To work with the Board and CEO, helping the IFW achieve its objectives
- Business Development – to open doors to target companies and other thought leadership organisations in the UK and abroad
- Where applicable, to engage with and represent the IFW to relevant media / representative bodies in the UK and abroad, e.g. PFS, CISI
- To take an active role in reviewing research opportunities and the resultant papers
- To act as a sounding board to the Board and CEO as required

Role duties

- To have leadership responsibility for the development and promotion of the IFW
- To be a point of contact for enquiries from other organisations and the press on matters relating to the IFW as a body
- To perform the duties expected of a Chair such as Board engagement /setting meeting agendas etc in conjunction with the CEO

Commitment

- c1 day per month
- 24 month rotation

Candidate Profile

1. Are a decent person
2. Can engage with the Ops team, Board and Vice Chair
3. Is connected in the sector and possibly in the wider WB arena
4. Is an experienced speaker and media savvy
5. Has the time and motivation to develop the Institute (minimum 24 months in post)
6. Has the inclination to learn the theoretic foundations and practical applications of FWB (if not already known)
7. Has the financial security to enable them to work pro-bono

Please email expressions of interest to our CEO at nick@ifw.org.uk

www.ifw.org.uk

members@ifw.org.uk

Queen Square
House,
18-21 Queen Square,
Bristol, BS1 4NH

f

in